VICTORY SONGS

This edition is dedicated to the boys of the Glorious Yankee Division.

OUR HEROES

WORDS AND MUSIC BY

GEORGE THORNTON EDWARDS

PUBLISHED BY

THE UNDERWOOD MUSIC COMPANY

Portland, Maine, U. S. A.

Our Heroes

Words and Music by George Thornton Edwards

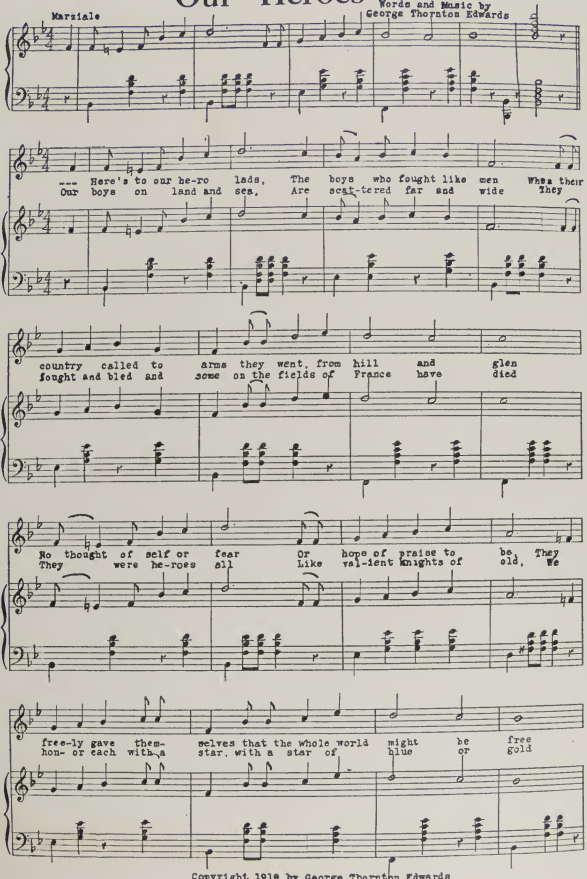
Marziale



--- Here's to our he-ro lads, The boys who fought like men When their Our boys on land and sea, Are scat-tered far and wide They country called to arms they went, from hill and glen fought and bled and some on the fields of France have died
No thought of self or fear Or hope of praise to be, They They were he-roes all Like val-ient knights of old, We free-ly gave them- selves that the whole world might be free hon- or each with a star, with a star of blue or gold

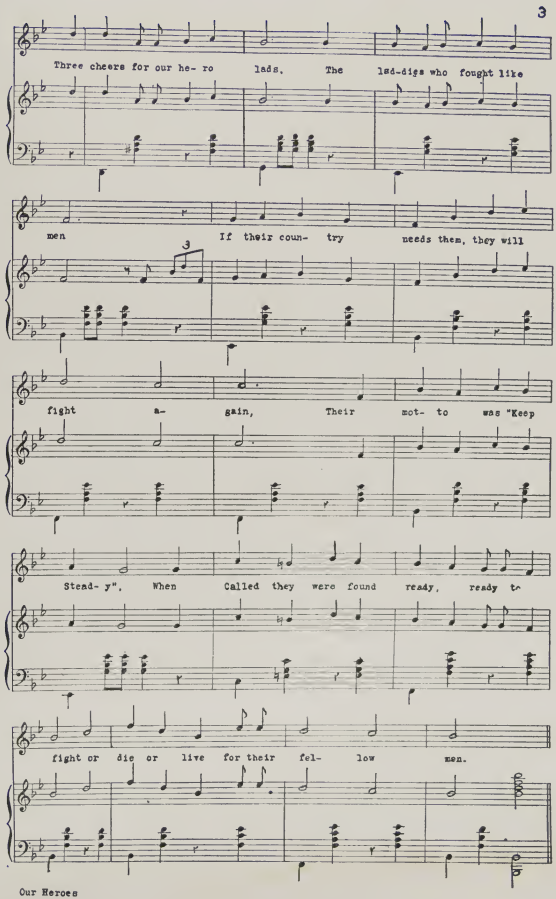
Copyright 1919 by George Thornton Edwards



Three cheers for our he- ro lads. The lad-dies who fought like men If their coun- try needs them, they will 3
fight a- gain, Their mot- to was "Keep Stead- y". When Called they were found ready, ready to fight or die or live for their fel- low men.